

Express Employment Professionals is proud to present an exciting opportunity to join business leaders from throughout our community for a special event featuring speakers who have built distinguished careers based on the principles of great leadership.

The Five Temptations of a Leader

Presented by Patrick Lencioni, leadership consultant, speaker, and New York Times best-selling author.

Based on the model in his first best-selling book, The Five Temptations of a CEO, Lencioni will identify the natural human tendencies that plague all leaders, often preventing them from fulfilling their potential. He will also offer actionable advice on how to overcome these common behavioral pitfalls.

Hall of Fame Leadership

Presented by Troy Aikman and Emmitt Smith, legendary former professional football players and Pro Football Hall of Fame members.

This moderated Q&A session is your chance to learn leadership tips and advice from two members of one of the most prolific NFL teams in history. When you register, you'll have the opportunity to submit a question for Smith and Aikman to answer live during the program.

Finding Your Purpose

Presented by Dr. Bertice Berry, sociologist, author, lecturer, and educator.

During her presentation, Dr. Berry will discuss the importance of finding your purpose in life and leading others to find theirs. She will also identify different learning styles and how crucial it is to learn the style that works best for you and the people you lead.

With special guest emcee Andy Buckley, who is known for his role as David Wallace on the hit television show The Office.

Registration is required. For more information, contact your Oxford, NC Express Employment Professionals office today.
