

September is National Recovery Month

Collaborating for Change: Providers, Parents and the Community Together

Guest Speaker: Phil Mooring, Executive Director of Families in Action

FOR: Providers and agencies who collaborate with parents and the community-at-large to help parents face the challenge of keeping their children safe, healthy and drug free.

- Learn why prevention research and conventional wisdom support parent involvement as a best practice
- Learn simple and practical strategies for increasing parent-centered involvement
- You will be introduced to the Parent Leader model as one strategy for increasing parent-centered involvement and expanding the community's capacity to prevent underage drinking and illicit drug use.

To RSVP contact:
Gina DeMent, Community Relations Specialist at:

Gina.DeMent@pbhsolutions.org

SPACE IS LIMITED

Date: September 11th, 2012

Time: 11:30-1:00

Location: Golden Corral
103 North Cooper Drive
Henderson, NC 27536

(Buy lunch or Bring your own)

About the Presenter:

Phil Mooring, a Licensed Clinical Addictions Specialist and Certified Substance Abuse Prevention Consultant, is Executive Director of Families in Action, a nonprofit substance abuse prevention organization based in Wilson, NC. He is a member of the NC Commission for Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities and Substance Abuse Services and a member of the NC Substance Abuse Professional Practice Board. Prior to his current position, Mooring served for ten years as CEO of the Walter B. Jones Alcohol and Drug Abuse Treatment Center, Greenville, NC. He has served as president of Addiction Professionals of North Carolina, president of the NC Foundation for Alcohol and Drug Studies, and is the immediate past president of the NC Substance Abuse Prevention Providers Association.